

Technical Director and Women's High-Performance Gymnastics Coach

In operation since 1949 and as one of the largest clubs in Canada, EYGC offers a dynamic and professional environment with opportunity for growth. Our programs range from young toddlers to adult recreational as well as strong compulsory, provincial and national competitive programs in WAG, MAG and Acro which have produced several national team members.

We are looking for a leader that will develop and direct a professional development program for our coaching team of 75 + coaches from beginner to high performance and who will collaborate with the WAG Head coach in the continued development of a high-performance gymnastic team.

- ) WAG NCCP Level 3 - 4 Certification (Level 4 preferred)
- ) Trampoline NCCP certification
- ) Experience in coaching High Performance and JO Optional on all events
- ) Compulsory JO knowledge
- ) Judging certification as asset
- ) Choreography a strong asset
- ) University degree in a related field
- ) Well organized, strong work ethic, motivating and a team player
- ) Risk Management certification, police background check required
- ) First Aid or willing to obtain
- ) Excellent communication skills, verbal and written (Bilingual an asset)
- ) Experience leading a team of coaches
- ) Ability to create and implement athlete development programs from identification through to competitive readiness for all levels (Level 3 – 10, Provincial and National)
- ) Minimum 5 years experience

This is a full-time salaried position. Salary to be negotiable based on qualifications and experience.

Interested applicants should send their resume for review to Sandi Robertson at sandi@eastyorkgym.com.

We thank all that apply, however, only those most closely matching these requirements will be contacted for an interview.